It’s all in the sauce

Our noodles

Hot noodles are a special ramen from a Yilan noodle maker: chewy and springy, close to Sanuki udon. Cold noodles are Japanese somen or thin Italian spaghetti, chilled in filtered ice water. The somen is cool and silky; the spaghetti fine and bouncy.

Hot noodles come dry-tossed or in soup, every flavour our own. Each cold noodle takes its lead from one country or region, with the sauce and toppings people eat there.

Fresh, seasonal ingredients and sauces and spices from Taiwan, France, Japan, Korea, Sichuan, Hong Kong, Thailand and Vietnam: layered, surprising, satisfying. A taste of the world worth remembering. That’s what Dancing Noodles is about.
